

BULGARIANS BEGIN WAR ON TURKEY

People Ignore Delays of Diplomacy and Cross Frontier ---400 Die in Battle

LONDON, Oct. 4.—An engagement has taken place south of Harmanli, a Bulgarian town thirty-seven miles north of Adrianople, according to a Constantinople dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company. The casualty list is placed at 400 killed.

CONSTANTINOPLE, October 4.—That the Turkish cabinet voted yesterday to accept Italy's latest proposals for peace was the announcement made today from an authoritative source.

The preliminary agreements are to be signed upon the arrival at Ouchy of a special Turkish emissary who left Constantinople immediately after the cabinet meeting.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—Hostilities between the Balkan states and Turkey have begun, according to reports from many grounds tonight. A dispatch to the Russian government says Bulgarians are crossing the frontier.

Military action has outstripped slower-footed diplomacy, for no ultimatum has yet been presented to Turkey, and in Constantinople none is expected until Monday. The Porte, however, has sent an official notification to the powers which reads:

"In view of the manifestly aggressive attitude of the Balkan states, Turkey reserves to itself full liberty of action, convinced that the civilized world will not fail to do justice to its moderate attitude. But this cannot exclude care for safeguarding its dignity and security as well as its rights."

This, it would seem, is the Port's way of preparing the world for the future of the powers to state of hostilities. No official confirmation of the rupture of the peace is to be had, but skirmishes are reported to have taken place in the neighborhood of Djumala, called also Jamboli, Bulgarian territory in the Albanian vilayet of Scutari, along the Mohammedan frontier and near Bushkivran, on the Serbian border.

Turkey has appointed the war minister, Nazim Pasha, to supreme command. Rumor has not been mobilized yet and it is said will take no action for a few days.

Negotiations by the great powers in favor of peace are being carried on, the most important conferences being held at Paris. It is reported that Austria will receive Europe's mandate to take the needed steps to localize the war.

All dispatches from the Near East are subject to heavy delay and censorship.

GETTINJE, Montenegro, Oct. 3.—A detachment of Turkish frontier guards attacked the Montenegrin guards today on the border in the Borana district. The Montenegrins did not reply to the firing and the Turks retired.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 3.—The war minister, Nazim Pasha, has been appointed supreme commander of the Turkish forces.

Reliable information has been received this evening that the Balkan ultimatum demanding autonomy for Macedonia, will be delivered Monday. In view of the activity of the crisis, the government contemplates sending to the cabinet two or three members without portfolio. Persistent rumors are current that hostilities have commenced on the Bulgarian frontier north of Kirk-Kilisen, but the port declares it is without news. Bulgarian excesses against the Turks are reported from Varna, Aidos, Burgas and other places. Thirty Turks have been killed and many injured, according to this report. Bombs being employed in some cases.

The Samian leader, Sefidli, late adviser says has proclaimed a republic in the island of Samos, with himself as president.

At Salonika, Pasha, commander in chief of the Turkish forces in Albania, has been appointed to command the mountain army to operate against Serbia. The war fever of the populace is rising rapidly. Thousands of students and others formed processions and marched through the streets tonight. They held demonstrations in favor of war before the palace where the Sultan appeared and saluted them. Thence they proceeded to the various embassies and the ports.

Everywhere perfect order was maintained except that while passing the Bulgarian legation hostile cries were raised and stones were thrown. Later a strong body of police was sent to guard the legation.

Patriotic meetings were held and fiery speeches were made clamoring for war. This outcry is based on the belief that the Balkan states are combining to drive the Turks out of Europe.

The military authorities here say that the Bulgarian forces are being concentrated at Jamboli and Esli Sagra.

COLOGNE, Oct. 3.—The Cologne Gazette hears that Great Britain, France and Russia are planning the occupation of Crete, fearing that Greece intends to adopt an aggressive policy with regard to this island. Italy will not participate, owing to the Turco-Italian relations.

The contemplated measure, according to the Gazette, is agitating the Cretans greatly and forcible resistance to such intervention is proposed.

PARIS, Oct. 3.—France and Russia are in complete accord on all questions relating to the Balkan situation. The program they are to follow has not been divulged.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—The draft of the collective note to be presented to Turkey by Bulgaria, Serbia, Greece and Montenegro was received today by all the Balkan legations. The foreign offices of the various powers are to be made acquainted with its contents before its presentation to the Ottoman government.

The note demands an autonomy for Macedonia, Albania and old Serbia, which shall be at least equal to that enjoyed by Crete under the protecting powers.

ATHENS, Oct. 3.—At a diplomatic reception at the foreign office tonight the ministers of the great powers warned the Greek foreign minister against allowing Greece to drift into a dangerous enterprise. They informed him that Greece could expect nothing from their intervention if war followed.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—The Daily Telegraph's Vienna correspondent quotes a

BIRDMAN WALSH IN SPIRAL GLIDE FALLS 2000 FEET

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 3.—Charles P. Walsh, an aviator, fell 2,000 feet to instant death here today while trying to make a spiral glide. Walsh came to the East from San Diego, Cal. He was 25 years of age and is survived by a wife and two children who are at Hammonton, N. J.

Walsh, who had been giving exhibitions at the fair all week, was doing stunts in the air with his machine. He was probably 5,000 feet high when he began his descent. He was making the spiral descent with the front of his machine pointed almost downward when the upper plane seemed to become loose. Walsh could be plainly seen struggling to regain his balance but without avail. From 2,000 feet the machine dived straight down and Walsh was under it when it struck the ground. Every bone in his body was broken.

MADERO PREPARING TO ATTACK AGUILAR

Movement in Vera Cruz Causes Mexican Government Apprehension

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 3.—Although the government officially minimizes the importance of Aguilar's rebellion in the State of Vera Cruz, 500 federal soldiers were sent from the capital today to take the field against General Aguilar.

General Aguilar, who was ordered to the city of Vera Cruz to take general command of the operations and General Valdez was placed in charge of the field work.

Aguilar is moving southward toward Tehuacan, Puebla. It is said he will attempt the occupation of Orizaba, where he has been for some time. An important point on the Mexican railway in the State of Vera Cruz, and is now garrisoned by rurales.

A. L. Shaw, an American engineer on the Mexican railway, was wounded today near Vera Cruz, where rebels in a detachment of Aguilar's forces fired on a freight train en route to Vera Cruz. He was taken to a Vera Cruz hospital.

A private dispatch from Guaymas, Sonora, says that in a bunch with rebels, government troops captured Julia Vialle, an American, Vener, who is of French extraction, joined the rebels under General Aguilar. She was captured several months ago. Rebel forces of Chiriqui camp again have appeared in the Laguna district near Torreon, Coahuila, who has been operating in the Laguna district, now is in the northern part of Coahuila.

Agua continues to give the government some concern. Yesterday there were sharp skirmishes at San Felipe Agua, a suburb where Oaxaca keeps its water supply. The water is constantly guarded to prevent poisoning of the springs by rebels. One hundred prisoners were taken from Bolson prison today and placed in the army.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 3.—Judge Rives in the Probate Court decided today in favor of Mrs. Irene Barry, widow of the late John Barry, a mining man of Arizona, in her contest with her daughter, Mrs. Alice Barry, for appointment as administrator of the estate in California valued at $200,000. Barry died September 2nd leaving a large estate.

IRISH MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT HURT. SWINFORD, Ireland, Oct. 3.—John Dillon, member of Parliament, was thrown from a horse and badly injured in the head today while visiting in the county of Mayo.

Joseph Dillon, a member of Parliament, is confined to bed as the result of an automobile accident.

PIONEER IS DEAD. SANTA FE, Oct. 3.—William Hendricks, a pioneer of the days of forty-nine, died here today at the age of 82. He helped to erect the first brick building in Sacramento, Calif., in 1849. He came to this country at the age of 25.

CORBETT IS BETTER. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 3.—The condition of Joseph E. Corbett, who was operated on for appendicitis Tuesday, was improved today according to attending physicians.

Wilson Makes Personal Attack on Both His Opponents

HADLEY IS FOR TAFT

Roosevelt About to Start on Campaign of the Middle West

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 3.—For the first time during the national campaign, Woodrow Wilson tonight directed an extended attack on the administration of President Taft and former President Roosevelt. The Governor charged that Colonel Roosevelt, as President, had been "found incompetent." Taft, he said, had failed to carry the policies inaugurated under President Roosevelt's administration.

"When trusts and monopolies grew upon a scale never before dreamed of," in a picturesque illustration of a baseball park, the governor said, "before him tonight for several hundred feet in the bleachers and on the field an immense throng."

Governor Wilson said part: "You have the extraordinary spectacle of two branches of the Republican party, both of them led by men clearly responsible for the conditions which we are seeking to alter, and which are now following Roosevelt, the reason that men like Mr. La Follette are not following Mr. Roosevelt, is that they have already tested Mr. Roosevelt when he was President and have found that he was not willing to co-operate with them along any line that would be sufficient in the checking of the evils of which we complain."

"So that the leader of the very movement which is proposed for our emancipation is the man who has been tried in this very matter and not found worthy of the trust."

The governor attacked the plank in the Progressive party platform proposing social reforms. "It is not true," continued Governor Wilson, "that when Theodore Roosevelt was President of the United States the people of the United States were so divided as to require a party which would be called the Progressive party."

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Plans for the remainder of Colonel Roosevelt's campaign were outlined at a dinner of Progressive leaders here tonight. Colonel Roosevelt will leave for Oyster Bay and will speak at Madison Square Garden, New York. Then he goes to Maine to speak on October 25th. On the following day he will deliver an address in Brooklyn. His campaign will close with a tour through New York state on October 30th and 31st, November 1st and 2nd.

MARSHALL IN CONNECTICUT. NEW LONDON, Conn., Oct. 3.—Governor Marshall of Indiana, Democratic nominee for Vice President, completed his New England visit this evening by addressing audiences at Norwich and here. In these and in his afternoon address at Worcester, Governor Marshall devoted much of his attention to Colonel Roosevelt. The attacks of the governor brought out enthusiastic cheering.

In each city the meetings were largely attended. At Montville, an unpleasant incident occurred, but the governor treated it as a joke. Just as his automobile came to a stop, a boy in the crowd threw a stone which hit the windshield.

TAFT COMMITTEE BEATEN IN ATTEMPT TO THROW OUT THE ROOSEVELT ELECTORS

EIGHT KILLED IN EASTERN WRECK

Train Is Derailed and Boiler Explodes; Five Women Are Victims

WESTPORT, Conn., Oct. 3.—Eight persons, five of them women, were killed today when the Springfield express, second section, running from Hartford to New York, over the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, was wrecked west of this station.

The dead: Mrs. E. P. Gavitt, daughter of Anthony N. Brady of Albany, N. Y.; Mrs. James C. Brady, daughter-in-law of Brady; Mrs. C. S. Ransom, sister of Mrs. James C. Brady; Miss Mary Hamilton, sister of Mrs. J. C. Brady; Engineer Clark and Fireman Moker, Mark Wheeler, mail clerk; two unidentified women.

The engine, driven at high speed, failed to take a cross-over from one track to another. The train went into a ditch alongside the tracks and the four Pullman cars which followed the mail and baggage cars were demolished. The wreckage took fire.

The women killed were passengers in the first Pullman coach. The other dead are the engine crew.

Among those killed were the daughter and daughter-in-law of Anthony N. Brady, a prominent traction man of Albany and New York City. The women of the Brady family with a party of friends had attended the funeral of Patrick Garvan at Hartford.

The locomotive, which was running at high speed, went over on its side after leaving the roadbed, and the boiler, to all appearances, exploded. Engineer Clark was taken out alive, but died soon after. Joseph J. Mohr, his fireman, was crushed to death. The three day coaches although derailed, remained upright.

The South Norwalk fire department was called out and began working on the burning cars and surgeons were summoned from nearby towns.

Passengers' clothes had fallen and the work of removal of the injured passengers was slow. The fire in the wreckage burned several hours.

SAYS HE SWORE HE WAS FREE TO MARRY

Widow Has Oakland Realty Man Arrested as Perjurer

OAKLAND, Oct. 3.—Alexander Murdoch, a real estate broker of this city, was arrested here tonight on a charge of perjury sworn to by Mrs. Eugene C. Van Laven, who alleged that Murdoch had falsely sworn that he was unmarried, when he had a wife and children living in England. Mrs. Van Laven complained that she had lost $3,500 to Murdoch, while she was engaged to marry him. Subsequently she brought suit to recover the lands on the ground that Murdoch had failed to fulfill an agreement to give her the controlling interest of the property, a summer resort. Mrs. Van Laven's suit led to Murdoch's arrest, in which she now declares, as perjured himself.

Murdoch after his arrest, admitted his marriage, but declined to say whether or not he had been divorced. He said that he had spent $12,000 of his own money in clearing the title to the Lake country property and that Mrs. Van Laven had been fully informed as to financial affairs and had acquiesced in them.

CALIFORNIA FRUIT SHIPPED TO EUROPE

60,000 Tons, Canned or Dried, to Be Sent Abroad This Year

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—More than 60,000 tons of California canned and dried fruit will be shipped to Europe before this season closes, according to figures compiled by traffic men here. The tremendous growth in this trade during the past two years is said to be due largely to the elimination of speculative buyers. Producers are receiving full as great prices as in former years, but European consumers are getting benefit of a much lower price, with the result that a still greater increase in the trade is expected in succeeding years.

PRESIDENT VISITS OLD STYLE FAIR

BEVERLY, Mass., Oct. 3.—President Taft enjoyed a visit to a real old fashioned fair today. Mrs. Mrs. Taft he motored forty-five miles down Taft from Boston to Brockton, to spend an afternoon watching the races, listening to the bands and admiring the open air shows and other attractions.

JOHNSON TALKS TO ROUGH RIDERS

Says Progressive Platform Is Only Unambiguous Statement

BUFFALO, Oct. 3.—Tonight Governor Johnson made two speeches, one at the Broadway arsenal and another at a Polish hall. He was escorted to his meetings by about 400 members of the Rough Riders' Club.

At the Polish hall meeting the governor told his audience that the Progressive party was formed for all classes and nationalities. "This is a party for men and women of broad vision," he declared. "What we desire to accomplish is to make all men stand on an equal footing and let all have an equal start in life."

Contrasting the Progressive platform with those of the Republican and Democratic parties, the governor said it was unlike them in that it was plain and clear on every question it touched.

"Our platform was written without ambiguity and so that he who runs may read," he said. "We want our position on all questions to be plain."

The governor resolved word tonight that his wife had arrived in New York where he will join her Saturday.

HEAVY RAIN IN SOUTH OF STATE

Raisins and Other Fruits Suffer From the Bad Weather

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 3.—Rain which fell throughout southern California last night and today did untold good to citrus crops but considerable damage was inflicted upon beans, grapes, tomatoes and walnuts. The heaviest sufferers were the bean growers of Los Angeles and Ventura counties, whose crops had just been gathered and stacked. The general good done, however, greatly outweighs financially the damage suffered.

The heaviest precipitation was reported at San Bernardino where nearly half an inch had fallen at noon. The precipitation area covered about 200 miles square.

A light rain began falling here at 6 o'clock tonight.

SAN BERNARDINO, Oct. 3.—The grape and raisin crop, the greatest in the history of the San Bernardino valley, is threatened with serious damage unless there is immediate clearing of the weather.

A half inch of rain which fell today soaked the vineyards and raisin in course of curing. According to the growers the damage will be comparatively slight if clear weather prevails tomorrow; otherwise the damage will amount to thousands of dollars.

Orange growers are greatly pleased, as the much needed rain will hasten the ripening of the crop, now about three weeks late.

PARACHUTE FAILS; TWO ARE KILLED

TUSTUMBIA, Ala., Oct. 3.—H. C. Petty, aeronaut, and Lorenzo Cleveland, 15 years of age, were killed here today when a parachute failed to open. A dangling rope caught the leg of young Cleveland as a balloon ascended. The boy hung on until 500 feet up when both fell to their death.

The boy was crushed several feet above Petty when the line righted out. His ascent and several hundred spectators heard the noises attendant on him to slide down a rope to the trap. He wind disentangled himself and with the balloon pitching and tossing, got down to the trapeze on the parachute.

Immediately after he gained a hold on the rope Petty and the two fell downward, but the big parachute never opened and the two occupants were dashed to the ground a shapeless mass.

TWO TRAINMEN ARE KILLED IN NEVADA

WINNEMUCA, Nev., Oct. 3.—Two trainmen were killed today when engine No. 1433 hauling an extra westbound freight train, exploded near Crocker's station, seventeen miles west of here. The dead were Engineer N. L. Robinson and Fireman C. C. Cook. Fragments of Robinson's body were found a hundred feet from the wreck, while Cook was found 375 feet from his engine. He died a half hour after the explosion.

The extra engine was blown from the tracks. The boiler was found twenty feet away from the tracks.

Supreme Tribunal Upholds State Convention

Legislators Clearly Within Their Rights in Carrying Out the Statute

JUSTICE BEATTY CRITICIZES LAW

Constitutionality in Doubt; Taft People May Attack It on This Ground But Not Until After Election

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—The State Supreme Court, by a unanimous decision handed down here today, refused to make permanent the alternative writ of mandate by which the Taft Republican state convention sought to place Taft electoral nominees on the November ballot. As the Taft supporters did not avail themselves of the opportunity to secure a place of special petitions, the time for filing petitions having expired, no votes can be cast in California for President Taft at the November election unless they are written in.

The Taft leaders declared here tonight that in all probability the constitutionality of the state primary law, which was amended in 1907, is here again in question. The proceedings ending today, would not be attacked. There was some discussion earlier in the day, of beginning proceedings to have the law declared unconstitutional, but it was pointed out that in the event of a favorable decision in such an issue, the Progressives might convert the legislature into a special session and appoint thirteen presidential electors pledged to Roosevelt. It was generally agreed that this could be done and that it would disenfranchise not only Taft Republicans but Democrats and Socialists as well.

No plans have been formulated by the Taft men tonight and it is not believed further attempts to place the Taft nominees on the ballot will be made. However, it was declared that a court action on the primary law might be launched after the election. The Taft supporters declare they have ground for proceedings against the constitutionality of the law in a defect of the title. The title, they assert, does not fully specify the purposes of the law, a wider application having been given to the measure by amendments passed at the last special session of the legislature. The title, declare Taft men, was not amended in conformity with the changes in the law.

WOLFE AND SCHMITT. Edward I. Wolfe and Milton L. Schmitt, candidates for re-election to the State Senate and Assembly, respectively, who led the bolt of Taft-faction from the Sacramento convention, said tonight they did not believe any action with regard to further attempts to secure representation at the November ballot, would be made at the meeting of the Taft state executive committee, which will convene here Saturday.

"The committee will meet to complete organization," said Schmitt, "and if there is any discussion of the ballot controversy, it will be entirely incidental."

Schmitt was asked whether Taft Republicans would be urged to vote for Wilson.

"I do not believe so," he replied. "Personally, I intend to remain loyal to the President to the last, but I believe fully 90 per cent of the Taft Republicans of this state will vote for Wilson."

NOT REALLY REPUBLICAN. In brief the argument advanced by the Taft men was that although majorities govern in party conventions and their findings are binding on all party members, the Sacramento convention, which by a vote of 13, nominated delegates pledged to Roosevelt, had no right to the designation Republican, because its members had publicly forewarned the national Republican party and had pledged themselves to Roosevelt and Johnson the nominees of a third party running as such in other states.

In reply the Roosevelt men rejoined that the convention was the duly called and constituted convention of the Republican party in this state; which owed no allegiance to the national party. The law of the state was final and its nominees the only Republican nominees in California; that those who withdrew from it were bolters and had ceased to be Republicans.

On this point the court was unanimous in holding that the convention, under the laws of this state, was empowered to act according to its notion of political expediency and that its actions cannot be made the subject of inquiry by the court.

WEBB'S ARGUMENT. In closing his argument to the court in support of his demand for the petition of the electors chosen by the thirteen bolters at Sacramento, Attorney General Webb said:

"This is but a political question and one involving only the elements and dissension and inharmonious results in the Republican party of California. It then becomes a matter of determining whether the Supreme Court can

MORGAN TELLS OF GIVING $180,000 IN 1904 CAMPAIGN

Money Went Partly to National and Partly to State Committees — Roosevelt to Testify Today

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—J. Pierpont Morgan told the Senate campaign contributions committee today that while he had contributed $180,000 to the last two Republican presidential campaign funds, the gifts were made "without expectation of return."

After saying he had contributed $150,000 to the fund of 1904 and $30,000 to the fund of 1908, Morgan turned to the committee and exclaimed earnestly:

"I want it distinctly understood that J. P. Morgan & Company never made a single subscription to any election with any promise or expectation of anything, or return in any way, shape or manner, and we never made it with out we deemed it advantageous for the government and the people. We never had a communication from any candidate. We never had any application from any candidate for money, and we never made it with out we deemed it advantageous for the government and the people. There never was a commitment of any expectation of any return and we never got any return either, from anybody."

This statement followed a series of questions by Senator Pomerene as to whether New York financiers had forced and ascertained the attitude of various candidates toward business before making contributions. Morgan repeatedly denied that there was any concerted action among New York business interests in support of the Republican candidate in 1904.

Morgan said that after making his original contribution of $100,000 in 1904, he was importuned to give another $50,000, which he said he had understood was part of the so-called Harriman fund and was turned over to B. B. Odell for New York state fund. Charles H. Duell, assistant treasurer of the 1904 fund, who followed Morgan on the stand, said that all the accounts of the committee were open to Coriell, the chairman.

ROOSEVELT TODAY.

Colonel Roosevelt will be the principal witness before the committee tomorrow. He will be questioned as to his knowledge of contributions by corporations to the 1904 fund and particularly as to the so-called Standard Oil contribution of $100,000, which he said he ordered returned. The Colonel said he ordered the return of the fund to the pre-convention campaign for his nomination this year.

Morgan was a willing witness before the committee. At times he chuckled gleefully, as when he told the committee that "there was no limit" to the amount the Republican campaign committee in 1904 was willing to accept. Morgan took his bearing by laughing heartily at all the questions of the committee and he "guessed" his expenses and witness fees "would be all right."

MORGAN'S TESTIMONY.

Morgan denied the committee room before the hour set for the hearing.

NO WALL STREET LEAGUE.

He took a chair from one of the official stenographers and moved it to within a few feet of Senator Pomerene.

Senator Pomerene then asked whether other members of the firm of J. Pierpont Morgan & Company, assisting George W. Perkins, had contributed in 1904. Mr. Morgan did not know.

"Did your firm contribute to the campaign funds of any other political parties in 1904?" asked Mr. Pomerene.

"No sir. I did not and I have no knowledge of any one else so contributing."

Pomerene asked about "conferences" with George W. Perkins. Morgan said he talked with Perkins in 1907 over the financial situation but he recalled only one conference over politics.

"Did you talk with President Mollen of New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad in 1904?"

"Yes."

"Did you talk with representatives of the big insurance companies about the political situation during the campaign?"

"I can't tell. I talked to many people. Many people came in to see me every day."

"Do you remember any conference of big financial interests on the question of whom the interests would support for President?"

"No, I remember no such conference."

"When was it first determined that the financial interests would support the Republican nominee?" asked Pomerene.

"I never had any conference on that point," returned Mr. Morgan.

"The $100,000 contribution was again brought up and Senator Pomerene asked whether Bliss was collecting any special fund."

"No; that was the contribution we would make in the regular course of the campaign," said he. "We made the same contribution in 1906."

"Were you especially interested in the campaign of 1904?"

"Yes, we were."

"Was Mr. Harriman especially interested in that campaign?"

"I really do not know."

"Were the insurance companies especially interested in this campaign?"

"I do not know; there was never any concerted action by me with any of the insurance companies in that matter at that time," said Morgan emphatically.

"Of course, Mr. Perkins was a director of the New York Life Insurance company and he probably talked with me about their interests but I can't remember any specific conversation."

Pomerene asked whether Morgan had any talk with Harriman at that time about the effect of the campaign on the railroads.

"I do not remember any, but it is not unlikely," answered Morgan.

"Did Mr. Harriman ever tell you he had a talk with Mr. Roosevelt about railroad interests?" asked Senator Pomerene.

"I remember no such conversation,"

The financier here interrupted the examination to say:

"Mr. Chairman, I want to make a statement right here."

"Proceed."

"I want it distinctly understood," Morgan said emphatically, "that J. P. Morgan & Company never made a single subscription to any election with any promise or expectation of any return, in any shape or manner, and we never made it with out we thought it for the best interests of the government and the people. We never had a communication from any candidate, we never had an application from any candidate, the only interest we had was in the welfare of the public. We never asked any commitment; we never expected any returns, and we never got any."

"During this campaign has there been any intention on your part to support the Democratic campaign?" asked Senator Pomerene.

"I never heard of it, if there was," replied Morgan. "If we had thought the election of a Democrat was for the best interest of the country we would have contributed to his campaign."

Morgan, responding to another question about "a conference," said that he thought "he would have been likely to know whether there had been a small conference of large financiers," looking to the election of Colonel Roosevelt, but he had no knowledge of such.

"Did you or Mellen or Mr. Harriman call on any of the financial men in New York in the interest of the Republican ticket that year?"

"I don't think so; I never heard of such a thing."

"Was there at any time any conference among financial interests looking toward the nomination of a Democratic candidate that would be suitable to the financial interests of New York?"

"I know nothing of the kind."

"Were you at the office of the Union Pacific Railroad company in 1904?"

"No, I was never in that office," replied Morgan.

"Did you ever meet Mr. Harriman or Mr. Mellen in Mr. Harriman's office to talk over these matters?" asked Senator Pomerene.

Morgan responded he never had been in Harriman's office, and very seldom had talked with Harriman in that connection about the political situation.

He said he talked with no one representing the national committee, except officers of the national committee. He said Chairman George B. Cortelyou came into his office "several times" and thought the visits were before the election of $100,000.

WOULD TAKE ANYTHING.

"Was anything said by Mr. Cortelyou as to the amount they desired to raise?"

"I don't think there was any hint," replied Morgan with a chuckle. "I think they would have taken anything they could get."

The spectators joined Morgan in a laugh.

Under questions by Pomerene, Morgan repeated he had been given to understand that the Harriman $340,000 fund was being raised for the state committee, but was being given to the national committee.

"You understood that though intended for the state campaign the contribution would aid the national campaign, did you not?"

"Oh, certainly," said Morgan.

"Do you know the amount of money the Republican national committee was trying to raise?"

"No, I never asked. My occupation was gone when they got from me what they could."

Morgan said $30,000 was all that was given to the 1908 campaign, one contribution being $20,000 and another $10,000.

"Those contributions were all under the direction of Mr. Perkins. I speak of those because I remember them. I do not know what Mr. Perkins may have given."

Morgan said he knew of no conference of financial leaders in New York to decide whom they would support for President in 1908.

When Senator Pomerene took up the examination, Morgan moved his chair up to the committee table and resting his elbows on the edge, he leaned toward his questioner.

"Did you not remonstrate to any one, when the $50,000 request was made, that the $100,000 had been pretty liberal?" asked the senator.

"Oh, I did that originally," said Morgan, laughing. He added that "when they came for the $50,000," he had "gotten used to it, and did not object."

"Did Mr. Bliss and Mr. Cortelyou express any gratitude?"

"No, I never experienced much gratitude in this connection," returned Morgan.

NOT ALWAYS SELFISH.

Senator Pomerene referred to Morgan's remark that he had been interested only in "what was good for the country."

"Isn't it true that we think what we want is best for the country?" asked the senator.

"I don't," replied Morgan, laughing, "often want a thing that I think I ought not to have, and I try to get over wanting it."

Morgan said the second contribution of $50,000 was brought out "by the fear of the effect a Democratic victory in New York would have on the country."

Senator Pomerene then asked the usual formal questions as to any further information the witness might have.

"I know of nothing further," said Morgan. "I should be most happy to give the committee any information I have."

"You may be excused for the present," said Senator Pomerene.

"Can I go back to New York?" asked the chairman.

"We'll call for you if we want you," said the chairman. "You know you are entitled to your expenses for coming down here."

High went around, the committee and Morgan joining heartily.

"I guess that will be alright," he said, as he shook hands with the senators and turned to thank them for their courtesy."

He did not wait to sign the necessary voucher for his expenses as a witness and left the building with "satisfaction."

Charles H. Duell followed Morgan on the stand.

NO TAFT ELECTORS

The California Taft managers have realized their wish. There will be no Taft electors on the ballot. This was the scheme from the beginning—to divert attention from their refusal to put the names on through the legal method, by putting up a noisy sham battle to get them on by a method known to be illegal and impossible. Nobody ever took seriously the claim that these electors could be put on the ballot as the nominees of a primary and convention at which they were overwhelmingly defeated. Frank H. Short of Fresno, afterward chairman of the first legal advisory committee of the Taft organization, pointed out in print, months ago, that this could not be legally done, and advised taking steps then to get the electors on by legal petition. Two state and two federal courts, in other cases, later made the same decision, and the Attorney-General of California so advised. The Taft managers therefore knew that their case, on this contention, was hopeless. Chairman Hille, of the national committee, also so advised them, and demanded that they take steps to get on the ballot by petition. But at every stage, they refused to make any effort to get on the ballot except by the one method which they knew was impossible. Finally, yesterday, the Supreme Court of California, a court whose members were so openly hostile to the Roosevelt supporters that they interjected partisan comment from the bench, decided unanimously and instantly, without leaving their seats, that there was nothing in the claim of the Taft electors to a place on the ballot as the nominees of a convention which defeated them seven to one. Meantime the sham battle has been kept up until the time had expired for getting the names on in any other way; and so the purpose is accomplished.

Practically, of course, the result is not important. The Taft forces in California are so few in numbers that there was no possibility of their vote affecting the result. But nevertheless, so long as there are voters in California who desire to vote for Taft, they ought to have the same individual right to do so that prohibitionists or socialists, for instance, have to vote their respective tickets. The scheme of the Taft leaders is to capitalize the natural indignation of their followers at their deprivation, and seek thereby to divert Republican votes to the Democratic candidate. So the question of who is responsible does become of at least sentimental importance. And the whole bluff is to attribute the responsibility to the Roosevelt leaders.

The bluff is almost too hollow to be worth puncturing. Nobody wants to keep the Taft electors off, and nobody did keep them off, except these very pretended Taft leaders. They could not be put on as the nominees of the Republican state convention, for the sufficient reason that the voters at the Republican primaries, by overwhelming majorities, instructed that others be put on. But they could have been put on, by petition of their own supporters, under the very name "National Republicans," which they insisted in their petition to the Supreme Court was the name of their party, and the National Republican committee demanded that they be put on. Those who refused to put them on in that way knew that they were thereby refusing to put them on at all. They chose their own policy. Let them not now sneak out of responsibility for it.

SWATTING TURKEY

Fate is indeed ironical in its dealings with Turkey. After centuries of despotism, in which the sultanate has been more or less successful in defying God and man, in the last decade the Turks have reformed and are now suffering, if not from the consequences, at least from such attendant evils as may make them yearn for their former unreformed state. Italy has despoiled the sultan of Tripoli, and now all the Balkan states are uniting to strip from him the territory that remains to him in Europe. In his fight with all the Christian residents of his dominions, the only friends that the "Shadow of God on Earth" has left are the group of great Christian powers who wish to keep him in power to prevent war among themselves.

The regenerated Turkish government has, under a form of constitutional government, satisfied neither its Mohammedan nor its Christian citizens. The Mohammedans resent the liberties and offices conferred on the Christians and the Albanians especially have objected to the attempts to deprive them of their arms, with which they could kill off a few Macedonians as occasion required. On the other hand, the Christians claim that the reform at Constantinople has been only skin deep, and that they have really been suffering almost as much since the revolution as they did under the tyranny of Abdul Hamid.

Probably it is true that Turkish reforms have brought in their train weaknesses which will permit a further stripping of the empire of its Christian territory. It will be a good thing, Mohammedan and Christian are not fitted to live at peace together under the same administration, especially such a government as the Mohammedans are likely to furnish. So, whether the Balkan states really make war on Constantinople, or whether the great powers step in to save Turkey, the result is bound to be a separate administration for Macedonia and the other Christian dominions of Turkey in Europe.

ON BEHALF OF PUBLIC

The near tragedy at the Santa Fe crossing of Tulare street night before last suggests that the public has a clear and definite duty in accidents of this kind, which has heretofore not been provided for at all.

In the midst of what is often crowded city traffic, the city has permitted two public service corporations to cross each other in a manner that is frequently likely to result in disaster, disaster the only thing to prevent which is very fallible human nerves and will power. For the occurrence of such criminal carelessness, whenever it exists, the law holds and properly holds the public service corporations or private individuals to blame, yet there is no provision by which the public as such is protected by the holding of an immediate investigation.

Both railways and traction companies are always prepared. They have their officers ready to gather evidence at once, which is of course never biased against the companies and may be biased in their favor. So in a case where either the company or some private individual is to blame, the only evidence prepared at once is that which will tend to free the company from blame.

In this particular instance it is conceded that either one or the other of the companies was, through its employees, at fault. Each company has prepared a statement to show that it was not to blame for the accident.

Had there been a death, the coroner would of course have been authorized to take charge and prepare evidence useful in subsequent criminal prosecutions. But in the many cases where there is no immediate fatality, the coroner does not act. Some of the injured persons may in fact later on die, necessitating a manslaughter proceeding. In any case, the persons injured have a right to damages if the companies are to blame, yet they, under the circumstances, may have no chance to gather evidence, and the company has in the meantime seen as many witnesses as possible and in general prepared an atmosphere prejudicial to any damage suits.

Since the government authorizes the creation of such dangerous conditions, and by the very fact of its existence, the city is responsible for them, the least it can do is to provide some method for an immediate investigation of such accidents, even though there may be no fatalities.

ESKIMO DANGERS

We await with interest the comments that will be made by church publicists on the proposal of an eminent explorer to quarantine the recently discovered "blonde Eskimos" of the Arctic circle from both traders and missionaries. The explorer says that missionaries as well as traders will bring with them white men's diseases, which are especially deadly to the weak-brethren of the Polar regions, while on the other hand, as the Eskimos have already a religion which serves their purpose very well, the missionaries need not consider that, in remaining away, they are shirking a duty.

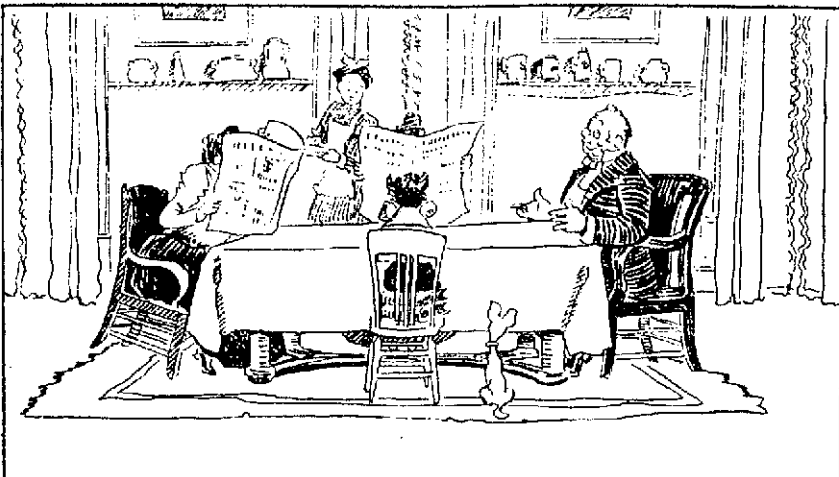

It is the last point which will probably be the subject of sharp comment. Who is this explorer, that he can pass upon the question as to the sufficiency of the Eskimo religion, provided that it is not the true religion, whatever that may be? What is the danger to the body of the men of snow, from measles and other diseases, as compared to the danger to his soul if it is not properly shirking? We doubt if any conscientious missionary society would be prevented from making a campaign by any such reasoning, while any attempt of any government to provide such a quarantine would meet with vigorous protests.

We imagine that the theories of the case will not influence the practical result. This is a day in which it would be difficult to debate either the white man's religion or the white man's trade or disease from the polar circle. No quarantine could do it. No missionary society which really wants to get there could be headed off. The Eskimo, blonde or brunette, must become a part of the family of mankind, and suffer accordingly. And if they are to suffer from tuberculosis, at least, they will not be the first to pay a heavy penalty for the advantages of culture.

It is to be hoped that the latest promise of the Santa Fe railroad to stop switching across Tulare street within a month will be realized. Even at that the Tulare street crossing with the regular passing of trains will not be free of danger. Much of the congested vehicular traffic going and returning from the park and fair grounds would be removed from Tulare street by a subway or overhead crossing at Ventura avenue. The latter is a very broad avenue and is the natural highway for this traffic. With a safe crossing at Ventura and a paved street, the danger element at the Tulare crossing would be at least reduced.

EX-QUEEN LILUOKALANI OF THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS AS SHE APPEARS TODAY

Ray Stannard Baker writes in the October American Magazine a short article about Ex-Queen Liliuokalani of Hawaii who, at the time of her dethronement in 1893, was a famous personage, much in the public eye. She now lives in retirement in Hawaii, still greatly beloved by her people. Mr. Baker writes:

"At one time some twenty years ago, there was no more unique and interesting figure before the American public than Liliuokalani, Queen of the Sandwich Islands. For weeks during the administration of President Cleveland, while she was struggling to retain the royal crown of Hawaii, her doing filled the American press and she was a favorite subject for the scribes of cartoonists and paragraphers."

"I saw her recently in Honolulu. She was driving out, according to her custom, in an open carriage—a really impressive figure, large, dark, and with an air of distinction not uncommonly. In earlier years a woman of force and pride, she has now retired and at the age of seventy, lives serenely in a beautiful old home shaded with tropical foliage only a stone's throw from the palace where she once reigned—the palace where she sits the American governor. She shuns publicity, but she loves to gather groups of her old friends about her, and to listen to the singing of the sweet Hawaiian songs. Though having no longer any power, she is yet looked up to and venerated by all her people—all the pathetic remnant of a once numerous race of islanders. While she was bitterly attacked in her day by the Americans who wished to rule the islands, and while she caused a revolution which cost her a crown, there are many to-day who will tell you that, after all, she was only making a last, foolish stand for her people and for her throne against the encroachments of the eager, busy, destructive, irresistible, orderly white man. After it was all over and she came back to Honolulu, the new American government voted her a generous pension, and she has been living quietly upon it ever since. The one who knows her intimately says that she is a woman of fine intelligence and possessed of many truly queenly qualities. With her will die the last crowned head of the Sandwich Islands."

PRESIDENT TAFT SAYS SOCIALISM WOULD QUENCH HUMAN AMBITION

President Taft's views on "Socialism and Its Menace" and "Why Government Ownership Would Not Help the Wage-Earner" are reported in the "Century" by Charles D. Hille, Chairman of the Republican National Committee. A part of the article follows:

"The individual worker, spurred on by competition and struggling against the inexorable laws of supply and demand, becomes the keener because of the conflict, acquires efficiency in the strife and achieves a victory the greater because of the very obstacles he has been obliged to overcome. No substitute for this conflict has yet been devised nor can it be so long as human nature remains the same, a material which can be molded only in the furnace of economic strife."

"Appalled, however, at the carnage to be seen on the economic battlefield, the Socialist seeks a system which would obviate the conflict and the injustice, and to that end he would eliminate competition, establish social or governmental supervision of all fields of human endeavor, prescribe rates of compensation by the decree of supervisory commissions or committees, and, in effect, nullify the laws of supply and demand and ignore the inequalities of individual efficiency. But, he is oblivious of the tendency of such a program to a dead level of individual mediocrity, its menace to that individual enterprise and abnormal endeavor which always have and always will contribute greatly to human progress."

"Socialism is a one-sided philosophy. It takes heed only of man's social needs and obligations and wholly ignores his individual aims and aspirations and achievements. It is a material which can be molded only in the furnace of economic strife."

"The Protective system and the Free Trade as an act of spite, but the many will vote their honest choice or not at all."—Napa Register.

Hanford and State Highway

The Journal suggests that the Merchants' Association immediately take steps to secure the right for the routing of the state highway through Hanford and Visalia. While the road is now being surveyed straight down the Southern Pacific tracks between Selma and Delano, yet the highway committee has endorsed the proposed routing before the people of Hanford and Visalia and it is worth making known to the highway act and the belief of the voters in the local centers who endorsed the big bond issue, both these county seats are entitled to it, and we believe that Tulare's assistance in the fight could be enlisted by definite endorsement of the route south of Visalia to run straight to Tulare and then down the Southern Pacific to Hanford, the logical route. A united fight by these three cities would be a power to be reckoned with, and the Journal believes such a find effort would prove irresistible by the commission.—Hanford Journal.

Taft Game in California

It is a great game that Taft-ites are playing in this state. To all appearances they are fighting for a place in the Republican ticket that they in their heart of hearts do not want. Political persecution is what they are after. The wave of sympathy they are seeking to generate would in their mind express itself in votes for Wilson. But will it? Here and there you will find a Republican willing to go the limit of voting against

THE ONLY WAY

Many Fresno Citizens Have Discovered It.

Just what to do when the kidneys are affected, is a question that concerns both young and old. Weak kidneys neglected in childhood lead to life-long suffering. People of advanced years, with less vitality, suffer doubly in youth or age. Jaundice, backache, urinary irregularity, dizziness and nervousness make life a burden.

There is one remedy that acts directly on the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills owe their world-wide fame to the fact that they have cured thousands of cases of sick kidneys and cured permanently. Follow this advice, Fresno.

Robert Sandifer, Sanger, Cal., says: "About six years ago I was suffering from kidney trouble and lameness, and, hearing Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended, I began their use. I was promptly relieved and at that time I consider Doan's Kidney Pills worthy of the strongest endorsement I can give them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

SOCIETY

The Parlor Lecture club started its work for the season yesterday afternoon with a meeting held at the club house in the hall of the building which customarily precedes the business session. Mrs. Shirley Shaw, whose lovely voice has given pleasure on so many occasions since her recent coming to Fresno, gave "Where My Country Lies Beyond" by Louis, very beautifully. Miss Winifred Fletcher followed with a splendid interpretation of a difficult Sonata by Beethoven.

Mrs. George H. Taylor presided for the first time since her appointment to fill the vacancy of president since the resignation of Mrs. J. E. Hughes. Having won laurels for her tact during a previous regime, she was warmly welcomed back into her official duties, and she gracefully introduced the subject for the afternoon, "Echoes from the Biennial." Mrs. George L. Warlow gave a pleasant account of the splendid social times afforded by the great convention and told of the music at the various functions. She also spoke of the untimely death of a member of the Biennial Board, had much of interest to tell in regard to the machinery of getting everything ready for the hundreds of visitors, who were made to feel as much like personal guests as could be possible.

Miss Lucy Hatch gave a stately and touching tribute to the memory of Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker, whose death, occurring in San Francisco just at the close of the Biennial meeting, cast a gloom over the assemblage of club women, and over clubdom in general. Mrs. Decker having been connected with the General Federation workings as a past president of the organization, Mrs. Taylor in the business session told of the changes occurring during the summer vacation in the Parlor Lecture Club life, and called upon Mrs. Frederick Hildeke, the secretary, for a report. Mrs. Hildeke gave the account of Mrs. T. J. Hammond's resignation as president, the appointment of Mrs. J. E. Hughes, who accepted with reluctance and her having to resign at the suggestion of her physician after working during the summer in connection with Mrs. H. W. Neely to arrange the year book, and the interesting calendar is placed to their credit. Mrs. George H. Taylor was unanimously appointed by the board to fill the vacancy, and with unselfishness she gave up her personal plans for the winter to merge them in the greater work for the club. The support and assistance of the board and standing committees was promised.

A letter from George L. Warlow urged the clubwomen to register in order that they might vote down the amendment allowing racing bets at the coming election. The Federation standing for principle and not politics, the action will be taken up in that way, as individual action rather than the concerted action of any of the Valley clubs.

Mrs. J. S. Jones as a member of the standing committee, reported that of the $1000 debt incurred at the building of the club house in 1905, only $260 remains unpaid, and within another year the debt will be canceled. Considering the increased value of the property there will be no more club house stock sold, and it will not be necessary to hold the annual bazaar this year.

Ten new members were elected to membership yesterday. The meeting closed with a little watchword from Mrs. Taylor to the effect that service is the keynote of success, and this in application to the coming state federation in the spring to which the local clubwomen are now applying all their efforts.

Aromatic coffee and waters were dispensed in the refreshment hall below stairs at the conclusion of the afternoon.

The Literary Department will hold its first meeting on Monday, the 21st, the Home Department on Thursday, the 24th and the Music on November 6th.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Shepherd entertained a party last evening at the Horton, witnessing the production of "Officer 666," and later enjoying a supper party at the Sequoia. In the group were Messrs. and Mesdames A. L.

Secret of Making, L. E. Gray, Thomas Smith, Mrs. Hildeke and others.

Dr. and Mrs. Montgomery Thout, Dr. and Mrs. Dwight H. Thoutbridge and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Maunton made up a congenial party, occupying the day, and an afternoon part of the house, were received and Mrs. M. W. Miller, Mrs. Maude Elliott and Mrs. Mrs. Long (Miss Evelyn Woodworth) of San Francisco.

The marriage of Miss Anna Phillips and John Shuffletown, of Stockport, England, was quietly celebrated on Wednesday evening at the Calvary Presbyterian church. Rev. Isaac Wallace officiating. Miss Phillips has been one of the nurses at the Fresno county hospital for the last year, having come West from Chicago several years ago.

Mr. Shuffletown is a British soldier and has seen service in India and South Africa. He has been in America for several years. They will reside in Fresno.

Master Lloyd Martin celebrated his tenth birthday yesterday in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Martin, by giving a lawn party to his little friends. After games were played, cream and cake were served and many wishes for many other birthdays. Among those present were Helen and Wesley Scott, Marguerite Virgil, May Wilson, Roy and Mildred Johnson and Charles Haynes and others.

Coming from Portland, Ore., to be present with their children and grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Lakner celebrated their silver wedding anniversary last night at the country home of their daughter, Mrs. Beia Part. The happy couple were the recipients of many gifts from all parts of the country and even from abroad. The house was very prettily decorated for the occasion and from a chandelier a big basket of greenery and flowers hung in which were hidden many gifts.

A musical program was rendered during the evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Lakner, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Shymonell and two children, Mr. and Mrs. George of Portland, Prof. and Mrs. Beia Part, Mrs. Louise Hupfuf of New York and Mrs. Ernest Part and son of Oakland.

One of the most interesting pieces of news that will be of particular interest to the younger set is that of the marriage of Miss Mabel Dalton and George Russell Young, which was solemnized in Oakland on Wednesday at St. Paul's Episcopal church, Rev. Allen officiating. The marriage is the culmination of a romance that had its beginning several years ago, the engagement having been announced last fall at a luncheon given at the bride's aunt, Mrs. Edward A. Elliott, at her country home, "Arden," east of Fresno. That the wedding occurred in Oakland, will be a source of disappointment to the many friends of the pretty bride who would have showered her with attentions, had the interesting ceremony been performed in Fresno.

The event was rushed somewhat before the bride's mother, Mrs. Frank Dalton, left for her ranch near Lone Star, and was necessarily simple in appointments. Miss Dalton was very attractive in a becoming gown of navy blue with a little of velvet in the same tones, and simply ornamented with a single white feather. She carried an armful of long stemmed white chrysanthemums. She was attended by Miss Alice Penneycock, of Oakland, who was attired in a suit of pale blue, and carried blossoms of the same sort. Mr. Young was supported by Mr. Takones.

Mr. and Mrs. Young left by steamer for northern coast points, with Vancouver, B. C., as their final destination. Upon their return they will reside in Oakland, where a honeymoon has already been prepared for occupancy.

Mrs. Dalton returned to Fresno on Wednesday, joining Mr. Dalton and Miss Rene Dalton at their ranch home near Lone Star, where they will spend the winter.

The M. B. Harris residence on Milwaukee avenue will be the setting for a merry party this evening, when the Bridgettes will entertain with a dancing party, the ten members holding high scores from last season's games being the complimented guests on this occasion.

Mrs. H. W. Helfrich has returned from a delightful two month's visit with relatives in Michigan. She was accompanied by the sister, Miss Beas Fatten, of Detroit, who will be a guest in the Helfrich household on Yosemite avenue during the winter.

The members of the Junior College enjoyed a jolly "get acquainted" party last evening at the home of Miss Edna Grounds on San Pablo avenue. Gaily colored lanterns strung about the garden gave the residence a gala appearance, and within the rooms were ornate with a simple use of red, white and blue. Games, dancing, Progressive and informal dancing as well. A reading by George H. Huntington, dean of the Junior College, also added pleasure to the occasion.

The affair concluded very pleasantly with the serving of dainties.

The Friday Study club will celebrate its opening day for the season with a play-day at the home of Charles H. Jenney, on Glenn avenue, in celebration of the customary "President's Day." TAFT PEOPLE WILL NOT ENGAGE IN CAMPAIGN

Ruling Out of Electors Makes This Useless; Will Keep Organization Republican Committee Has No Trouble Drawing From Banks

Inasmuch as the decision of the Supreme Court does not allow Taft electors to vote on the November ballot, there will be no need for a Taft campaign and none will be conducted in this county, according to a statement made yesterday by Frank H. Short, chairman of the Taft central committee.

When the central committee was organized, it was said that its plans of actively would depend altogether upon whether or not Taft electors would be on the ballot. E. A. Williams, chairman of the campaign committee, had arranged a meeting of the committee for Saturday, however, when a plan of campaign would be outlined, but now that the Taft electors have been ruled out of the ballot, it is not probable that the meeting will be held.

The Taft organization, however, will be maintained according to Short, to "perpetuate the specks," as he put it. The action of the Taft people, through E. A. Williams, in serving notice on the Fresno banks that they were not able to pay out money, deposited in the name of the Republican county central committee, unless the committee's status with the banks is the same as it always has been.

E. A. Williams admitted to Cashin yesterday morning that his organization had no legal rights, according to a statement made by Cashin yesterday afternoon, but said his purpose was to get hold of the money and to stir up trouble.

The challenge of E. A. Williams for a series of debates to be held in Fresno county, will not be accepted by the Republican county central committee, according to a decision reached yesterday. It was decided to disregard the challenge and to hold independent meetings only in the county.

It is also a cousin of the late D. S. Snodgrass of Selma, and while visiting the family of the latter in Berkeley, the legal fraternity about the bay became aware of his presence in the state and would have had a social attentions paid to him. But the distinguished jurist is in the state for a few days and he very reluctantly denied himself the pleasure of accepting the courtesies offered from lawyers, legal clubs, faculty members, etc. After concluding visits at Del Monte and Los Angeles, the judge will return to Chattanooga, stopping enroute to spend a few days with a banker brother in Texas.

Master Ralph Cobb was the host at a merry little party yesterday afternoon, at the J. V. Cobb residence, 1218 I street, celebrating his sixth birthday. Out-of-door games were played in happy fashion until late in the afternoon and dainty refreshments were served by the young host's grandmother, Mrs. Wm. Scott.

Miss Carolyn Damstedt, who has been visiting Miss Wanda Fraukner, left early in the week for her home in Vallejo.

Mrs. Frank H. Connolly entertained the members of her Sunday school class very pleasantly last evening at her home on N street. Musical contributions by various talented ones of the group were part of the pleasure of the evening, and games and refreshments suggested the musical entertainment. The members are: Misses Mildred Corrick, Blanche Pollard, Elinor Barr, Ethel Brubour, Edithella and Esther Slens, Marian Callon, Amy Callon, Maude McKay, Hazel Rice, Mary Hecox, Rosamond Williams, Ruth Samuelson, Ethel Reams, Miriam Smith, Ernestine Bellis and Ruby Marline.

Miss Belle Hildeke returned on Wednesday from San Francisco, where she has spent several months.

The Ladies Missionary Auxiliary of the North Side Christian church will hold their meeting this evening in the church and an unusual treat is in store for those attending, as Mrs. M. K. Harris will give a talk on her travels through the Holy Land.

The Pastime Sewing club enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Charles Jackson, at her home on Abbey street, at its meeting held yesterday afternoon. The customary needlework provided ample entertainment, and at the close of the sewing session refreshments were served. Among those present were Misses Mabel and Marguerite Prior, Catherine and Mabel McAllister, Nell Farnum, Mesdames Fred Jones, Ben McQuipine, Fred Smith and Charles Jackson.

The Physical Culture classes of the V. W. C. A. will meet this evening in the V. W. C. A. parlors at half past seven.

Mrs. L. I. Stone has returned from a week's visit in Los Angeles.

The members of the Veta Vita Embroidery club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. L. J. Kaurar at her home on Illinois avenue. The rooms were prettily decorated with multi-colored dahlias culled from the hostess' gardens and for an hour and a half the work of the sewing club was discussed. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the afternoon. The club membership has been increased. Mrs. Roy Smith, Mrs. Sinclair and Mrs. Clyde Munroe have recently been included in the congenial group.

SEAWARD NO LONGER HAS ORGANIZER'S COMMISSION

Dropped From Rolls of A. F. of L. by Gompers on Joint Request

State Federation of Labor and Local Council Ask for His Removal

Acting on a joint request from the Fresno Labor Council and from the California State Federation of Labor, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, has dropped Tom C. Seaward from the rolls of the American Federation of Labor, as volunteer organizer for that organization.

The Fresno Labor Council passed resolutions, condemning Seaward's actions in trying to exercise influence by reason of his voluntary commission, and requested that because of his conduct, his name be taken from the list of voluntary organizers.

A similar request was made by the State Federation of Labor, and forwarded to Gompers at Washington.

The following letter from Gompers to P. P. Lamoreux, secretary of the Fresno Labor Council, tells of his action:

Washington, D. C., Sept. 27, 1912.

Mr. P. P. Lamoreux, Secretary of Fresno Labor Council, 1189 I St., Fresno, Cal.

Dear Sir:—Your favor of the 21st instant is received, in which you transmit resolutions concerning T. C. Seaward, also newspaper clipping condemning his actions. You request that his commission be withdrawn.

In reply I beg to say that I am just in receipt of a similar request from the California State Federation of Labor, and in compliance with this joint request, Mr. Seaward has been dropped from the rolls as volunteer organizer from the A. F. of L.

With best wishes, and hoping to hear from you whenever convenient, I am,

Yours faithfully, SAMUEL GOMPERS, President American Federation of Labor.

CLERGYMAN PERMITS COURTING IN CHAPEL

LONDON, Oct. 3.—A few days ago Rev. E. B. Meyer, in an address made it known that he does not seriously object to a "blush courting" in chapel, and an incident which occurred in the Methodist church, which is recalled. The preacher was annoyed by the sound of whispering coming from the semi-darkness under one of the galleries, and paused in his sermon and said, "If the young couple making love under the gallery do not come to me in the vestry before service on Sunday morning, I will name them to the church." Next Sunday he found twenty couples awaiting him in the vestry.

4.—Let the cook go.

5.—Let me see all the letters you write to your sister Alice.

6.—Treat me as if I were the stronger of the two, as you say I am, and consider that I am the master of the house.

7.—Show me by your action and affection that you love me.

8.—Let's both to save money.

9.—You are not to get a regular allowance, but just what you need each month.

10.—Treat my relatives as if nothing happened, especially my brother Charles.

These conditions, written on the back of a grocery tag, and signed by the wife, were introduced in the suit of Mrs. Eccleston against her husband's brother, Charles Hudson Eccleston, for $25,000 damages. The trial has been going on before Superior Judge Harris in Oakland for several days, and is exciting much interest around the bay. Mrs. Eccleston charges that Charles Hudson Eccleston exerted prejudicial influence upon her husband against her and was thus the cause of the divorce, resulting in the divorce.

Charles Hudson Eccleston swore that he was not responsible for the separation, and that whatever advice he gave his brother was selected by the latter and given in the best of faith.

Combining this contention of the defense, letters were introduced by the plaintiff from her husband and one by him to his brother in which the situation in 1909 was shown, and which were offered as proof that the attention between husband and wife at that time was all that might be expected. The Ecclestons say that the letters were stolen from Louis Eccleston's desk.

The husband has already testified that his brother had nothing to do with the separation and has admitted that he was paying attention to another woman, a Mrs. Stipphen. On the witness stand Charles Eccleston, the brother, testified that he did not know his brother had been paying attention to Mrs. Stipphen until the present trial, and he heard it from the testimony.

EMPIRE THEATER ATTRACTS BIG CROWDS TO OPENING

BANKOFF AND BELMONT, RUSSIAN DANCERS AT EMPIRE THEATER.

The opening of the Empire marks the beginning of the real vaudeville season in Fresno. To judge from the opening bill Fresno people will see better vaudeville this winter than they have ever seen before. The Empire has promised good vaudeville and it certainly has made good with the opening bill.

If there are better acrobats in vaudeville than the Four Janowskys, they have never visited Fresno. These people are so very clever that it is not at first apparent how difficult their work really is.

The Janowskys have many tricks that are brand new, at least new in Fresno. Such feats as catapulting the smallest member of the troupe into the air and catching him on the hands of the largest member of the troupe is just one of the spectacular feats they perform. They have a trio dining stunt that is new and novel and difficult and sensational. The Four Janowskys certainly have an entertaining act.

The International Dancers, Belmont and Bankoff, offer some novel work. Dancing such as they perform is entirely different from the ordinary vaudeville dance. Their Russian dancing and their portrayal of the dances of other nations is educational, bewitchingly graceful and extraordinary in other ways. Their wild gyrations and evolutions suggest the Oriental. It is impossible to give a clear conception of what an unusual and pleasing act these people have.

"Betwixt" Afternoon and Evening Performance is the title of the unusual little sketch that give Holland and Holland an opportunity to make use of their talents.

Powell and the Desmond Sisters have dancing, singing, talking and changes to offer to those seeking in-tertainment at the Empire. There are just a little better than the best trio of this sort that has been in Fresno, in keeping with the high character of the opening bill at the Empire. The girls are fascinating and clever, the voices of all are good, and that it is an act of high character is shown by the lively applause it receives.

Fontanini, the Italian singer, has also been secured for the opening bill. He possesses a rich melodious voice that vibrates strongly through the pretty theater. His choice of classical songs in both Italian and English proclaim his ability as a singer.

It would be difficult to imagine a stronger and more entertaining bill than the one at the Empire this week. Every act is the best of its kind, the choice of the Bert Levy circuit. The enthusiastic applause by the large audiences that have attended show what theatergoers think of the Empire's initial offering.

FAIRWEATHER AGAIN HONORED BY OFFICE Named First Vice President of the National Irriga- tion Congress

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 3.—With the election of officers, the twentieth international irrigation congress adjoined to meet next year at Phoenix, Arizona. Tonight the delegates attended a ball and reception given in their honor.

Richard W. Young of Salt Lake City was elected president by unanimous vote. At the last moment the several cities that sought the next congress withdrew in favor of Phoenix.

Other officers named were John Fairweather, Fresno, California, vice president, and Arthur Hooker, secretary.

The report of the resolutions committee was adopted by the congress as a declaration of principles. The declaration asserts that federal control as between the states is essential to equitable distribution of the water of interstate streams. It renews the endorsement by the congress of the Newlands river regulation bill and approves the federal forest policy and favors its extension and recognizes the establishment of the United States reclamation service as second only in importance to the passing of the reclamation act.

According to the declarations, the law should require that all contracts for sale of power developed by a reclamation project shall be approved by a water users' association under such a project.

The following was included in the resolutions: "Resolved, that the International Irrigation Congress co-operate to the fullest extent with the Panama-Pacific Exposition in producing at San Diego, in 1915, the most elaborate and comprehensive international irrigation exhibit that has ever been assembled."

"We invite the attention of the president and directors of the Panama-Pacific Exposition to the propriety of making provision for an adequate exhibit of irrigated states at the San Francisco exposition."

The principal address of the day was made by Henry S. Graves, United States forester. "Within the last three years," he said, "there has been an agitation in certain quarters that the government abandon its policy of national forestry and turn its national forests over to the states. Underlying this question is another which must really be settled by the same answer, namely, whether the national forests shall be parceled out to individuals and corporations and forest conservation as a public policy abandoned."

"The first national interest in those lands is that of the continuance of timber production. It is imperative to the whole nation that these areas be handled with care and their productivity increased. The second great national interest is protection of navigable rivers and interstate waters. Their practical consideration which is really conclusive, is that the protection, administration and improvement of the national forests involve a financial burden which the states could not carry."

CLEVER MUSICAL HITS IN HEART BREAKERS

George Darnell and Myrtle Vall in "The Heart Breakers"—Barton Tonight.

"The Heart Breakers," the most recent of musical comedy hits from the Princess theater, Chicago, headed by George Darnell, lute of "Merry Widow" fame and a company of fifty will be seen at the Barton tonight.

The story of the "Heart Breakers" deals with the adventures of a band of bold young blades, whose avowed purpose in life is the kissing of girls, whether they are married, single or engaged. At this delicate art these ambitious youths are adepts, and they are well versed between the nice distinctions of the kiss caressing and the kiss compassionate and the peck conclusive. They progress adroitly on their mad osculatory conquest until they attempt to exercise their fatal fascinations upon an ingenious maiden, who in the play is known as the "girl" played by Miss Myrtle Vall. This alluring young lassie has been brought up by her father in ignorance of masculine attention. The reason of this is that her mother ran away with one of the "Heart Breakers" fifteen years ago. Her father finds out that the "Heart Breakers" are after his daughter, and he takes her to his castle in the Adirondacks. Here the different members of the club arrive in the different disguises of servants in the castle. The "master," Mr. George Darnell, succeeds in capturing the young lady's heart, and himself falls desperately in love with her. He sees how futile are the plans of the members of the organization, and foresees his own and eventually marries the "girl" thus breaking up the club. Many complications and funny situations ensue during the two acts. Manager Singer has tried to make this one of the most attractive of his many musical hits. There are many musical hits, such as "Your Eyes, Your Smile and You," "The Tale of the Bashful Humble Bee," "My Honolulu Honey Love," and "Somewhere She's Flinging With Someone."

Violation Was Due to Misinterpretation

The Railroad Commission has issued a supplemental order in the case of the Tidewater Southern Railway company, allowing that corporation to proceed with the issuance of its securities, holding that the violations of the commission's order were due to misinterpretation.

The commission, at the same time, allows the Tidewater Southern company to make certain changes in its proposed stock issuance. As amended the order permits of the issuance of $253,085 shares of common stock, of which 2,000,000 shares are for voting purposes only, and $7,119 of preferred stock, exchangeable for common.

The application of the Mt. Whitney Power & Electric Company to put into effect a new form of meter contract for power, providing for a minimum of $24 per year.

CHORUS GIRLS IN NOVEL STUNTS TONIGHT

"The Ragged Daughter," that pretty singing and dancing show that is picking houses nightly at Teal's theater, will be the big drawing card in conjunction with an exceptionally strong chorus girls' contest at Teal's theater.

Manager Turner has had the girls working on some big stunts for tonight's show and a vaudeville show that would be worth a dollar will be given in conjunction with the regular bill.

The elite chorus is without doubt the best ever seen in Fresno, the girls being all real specialty artists in their various lines.

The sextette number proved a riot and such singing has seldom been heard from a Fresno stage.

Miss Lang and Miss Loretta both came in for big orders with their numbers and the comedy of the two merry counseling bell and Onslow sent everyone home with their sides aching from laughter.

Saturday the ladies and children's matinee will be given at 3 p. m. and as this bill is an especially elaborately dressed one it is expected will draw out a big influx of the fair sex.

Sunday the bill will change at the matinee to "Off to the Front." Herb Bell and Roy Clair will be the principal comedians in this show.

Representatives of the two companies last night refused to state whether there would be any action taken in the courts regarding the wreck and the smashing of the car. A smooth, clear skin, with a delicate bloom, is one of the woman's most exquisite works. When the first blush of youth is over, this beautiful skin and healthy lustre are rarely seen. Denver S. Church Speaks at Democratic Meeting in Reedley

Democrats of Reedley met last night to organize a Wilson club and to elect a Denver S. Church, Democratic candidate for congress, as their speaker. Church will speak in Selma tonight and tomorrow in Tulare county, speaking in Visalia tomorrow night.

Referring to arguments put forth that Needham should be elected, Church said that Needham would be in the "second minority" if elected at this time.

The fourteen years that Needham has been in congress, said Church, "has been his strongest campaign argument against his opponent and in favor of himself, that the selection of a Democrat from this district to congress, would be a success, owing to the fact that the Democrats in the House of Representatives were in the minority and that a minority man could do nothing. That the only way to get results was to elect him because he was with the political party that enjoyed the majority position in congress."

The proposition, as far as I am advised in every speech he ever made in all his contests of fourteen years, I wonder what he will say now. It would be quite a joke if he should forget himself and through force of habit use the same old argument, for Mr. Needham, if he returns to congress, will not only be in the majority, but in the second minority there.

"And if his argument had any force in his favor in other campaigns, it surely has a double force now for me, for as you know, the Democrats are now in the majority in the lower house and have been for the last two years. Every body who is not a Democrat is a minority, but it is not only in the minority, but in the second minority, for we learn from his record that he is a disciple of Taft and a follower of the standard crowd, which everybody knows will be in the second minority in congress, and will be the most useless for the amendment of the tariff results."

metres, has charge of the girls in this department and will supervise all the athletic work. The details of a schedule have not yet been arranged but it is probable that the regular classes in physical culture will begin shortly.

The local association for girls is now better equipped than ever before in its history to carry out the original plans of its founding. All the various departments are now in fine condition and are not cramped as heretofore by lack of available space.

Physical culture, while never neglected, will be more of a feature than ever owing to the fine gymnasium the new building affords and the classes which will be started will no doubt be the largest in the history of the institution.

BOY SUCCOMBS TO TERRIBLE BURNS

Remained unconscious from the time he arrived at the county hospital Wednesday afternoon, the little son of Dominick Calabrese, who set his clothes afire while playing on a match, died early yesterday morning. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from St. Alphonsus church and the remains were buried in Mount View cemetery.

Y. W. C. A. GYMNASIUM WILL OPEN TONIGHT

Regular Classes to Start; New "Gym" Is Very Well Equipped

The fall and winter activities of the Fresno Young Women's Christian association will begin this evening with the opening of the new gymnasium at the association building at J and Merced streets. In addition to the usual physical apparatus, the "gym" has been newly equipped for basketball, indoor tennis and volleyball and regular classes in the sports will practice from now on.

Miss Frances Blakey, physical director, will begin this evening with the opening of the new gymnasium at the association building at J and Merced streets. In addition to the usual physical apparatus, the "gym" has been newly equipped for basketball, indoor tennis and volleyball and regular classes in the sports will practice from now on.

FIRE HYDRANTS ARE NEEDED; CITY HAS NO MONEY

Commissioners Make
Recommendation to Trustees as Emergency

Fire Chief Wintemute Is Reprimanded for Using Improper Language
Although Mayor Snow thought the fire department impossible to carry out because of lack of funds, the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners last night recommended to the city trustees the installation of thirty-two fire hydrants to cost $50 each. The matter was urged as an emergency measure to protect the northern part of the city, where growth has been rapid. The proposed locations are: Bennett and Fortcamp, Dudley and Fortcamp, Thomas and Fortcamp, Bennett and Green, and White, Orchard and Bennett, Orchard and Thomas, Grand and First, Nevada and First, Tamar and First, Nielsen and H. San Joaquin between H and C, Santa Clara between A and B, Mono between A and B, Kern between C and D, Fresno between A and B, San Joaquin between A and B, and San Joaquin between B and C. Stanslaus between B and C, Yolo and E, Stanislaus between H and I, Adeline and Belmont, Mono between L and M, Tulare between L and M, Dearborn and Glenn, Abby and Harvey, Belmont and Glenn, Los Angeles between F and G, Allen between H and Mariposa.

REPRIMAND CHIEF
After considering in executive session a charge of the use of improper language by Fire Chief Wintemute to R. F. Williams, a telephone lineman, Wintemute was publicly reprimanded. The incident happened on March 25th last. The chief says he misunderstood a technical term used by Williams as a byword and proceeded to answer in kind, as he supposed.

THEATER DETAIL
The board declared itself as favoring the enforcement of the ordinance requiring a fire drill at the theaters. The subject was laid over for special consideration at the next meeting, and it is to be ascertained in the meantime why the enforcement of the ordinance was ever suspended.

BAIRD STILL ILL
Report was made that Assistant Fire Chief Thomas Baird is in a weakened state of health, unable to do duty, and recuperating at Long Beach. A question was raised whether the board could grant him further leave of absence on pay because he has been granted the limit of sixty days. The clerk of the board was instructed to ascertain the powers of the board under the circumstances. Chief Wintemute expressed doubt that Baird would ever be able to do active fireman's service again, and intimated that he did not believe that Baird would be able to do active fireman's service again, and intimated that he did not believe that Baird would be able to do active fireman's service again.

PATROLMEN CONFIRMED
The appointments to the police force of Police Patrolmen Akers, Hansen and Slater were confirmed, all having served the probationary period. Akers had never been confirmed because of the failure of the board to hold meetings. Mayor Snow called attention to the record showing that the board had dismissed Akers in 1906 for leaving his post of duty without permission. This was one of the questions when after the resignation of Chief White demanded by ex-Mayor Lyon five or six members of the force resigned in sympathy when DeYoe was named chief. His error on that occasion was excused last night on account of his excellent record as a policeman. Slater was confirmed because he had served the probationary period and was confirmed because he had served the probationary period.

CHINATOWN PATROL
Mayor Snow brought up the question of the Chinatown patrol. He asked Chief Jones whether it was necessary to keep eight of the sixteen available patrolmen in the Chinatown quarter. At present five men are stationed there at night and three in the day time. Chief Jones said he thought the present number of men needed in Chinatown and the matter could be held here.

A plan suggested by Chief Jones for policemen's vacations was approved. Beginning the first of the year, the men will take their vacation in rotation, this not compelling the force in summer months.

NO MISDEMEANOR CUT
Dismissal of the street corner congestions and the need of placing patrolmen at them to regulate traffic suggested on the part of the mayor the declaration that he had in mind the amendment of the ordinance relating to the placement of patrolmen at street corners. Pratt and others doubted whether such an ordinance could be enforced, however desirable the regulation may be, because nowhere as they said is there so much diagonal crossing of streets as in Fresno in the congested business quarter.

Commissioner Holland was invited to present resolutions to be spread on the minutes, recording the death of Detective Condit.

Report was made of twenty-three fire alarms during the month of September, and by the police of 423 arrests and twenty-nine emergency hospital cases.

The little fellow showed remarkable bravery during his hour of emergency. Although the flesh was almost burned from his arms, he stood up in the emergency hospital and held on to his arms while Dr. Fox and Dr. Jones dressed the burns. He showed no consciousness when the ambulance hospital was reached and never rallied.

Best Piano Investment

A Steinway will outlast two other ordinary pianos, either of which may cost as much.

Steinway Pianos, whether 5 or 25 years old, have a cash value at any Sherman, Clay & Co. store.

An investment in a Steinway assures complete satisfaction and closes the avenue to future regret.

You will never be satisfied until you own a Steinway. We will sell you a less expensive Piano now and agree to take the same in exchange for a Steinway, any time within three years, allowing you the full purchase price paid.

Moderate terms on any Steinway.
